My Study..

The Social Construction of Sport Policy in Physical Education and School Sport(PESSCL/PESSYP) : Policy, Practice, and Evaluation

The primary aim of this study is, focusing on the decade from 2000 to 2010 in particular, to search for evidence of public discourse from documents, identify key agencies in the recontextualising field and investigate programmes and official evaluation studies within physical education and school sport context.

Research Questions

1

What are the major discourses within the Primary Field of Knowledge Production that form the Regulative Discourse (RD) of physical education and school sport between 2000 and 2010?

2

Who are the main agents/agencies within the Recontextualising Field (RF) and what are their roles and interrelationships, including their positionality in relation to government (ie. Positioned in the ORF and PRF)?

3

How are the physical cultural discourses generated in the Primary field recontextualised by agents within the RF that form the substance of the PESSCL and PESSYP and related initiatives?

4

How do official Evaluation Studies of these programmes prioritize particular forms of physical education and school sport and particular aspects of policy?
